6 December 1960

Miss Jessie Rosenfeld

STAT

Dear Miss Rosenfeld:

Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, asked me to thank you for your letter of 2 December 1960 reference the teaching of the history and policies of Communism in our secondary schools.

Your suggestion that officers of the CIA personally contact school administrators to promote this plan is of interest and we appreciate your thoughts. However, such a campaign could not be conducted by CIA. We are limited to pointing out the need, in the opinion of Mr. Dulles, for such instruction but it is up to the American civilian community to take action in promoting such a project.

I am enclosing a copy of Mr. Dulles' address for your information. Thank you for writing to us.

Sincerely,

/s/

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
